

K-Love is the only radio station I listen to. I am a Christian and almost all other radio stations have offensive material, K-Love provides me with important information on News and K-Love does not offend me, in fact the opposite, K-Love inspires me and is a positive ray of light in today's world.